
ILANZ Greenwood Roche Private Sector In-House Lawyer of the Year Award 2018

Greenwood Roche extends its warmest congratulations to Marise Winthrop, Corporate Counsel, Livestock Improvements Corporation (LIC). The award recognises Marise's significant contribution to both LIC and the legal profession.

Marise manages the legal and intellectual property teams at LIC providing strategic and tactical options on the creation and protection of LIC's growing portfolio of IP assets.

Greenwood Roche is proud to continue its support of ILANZ and to continue working alongside many of its members, providing pragmatic solutions in the delivery of various projects and initiatives that its members undertake. In her speech at the awards, Greenwood Roche Partner Ranui Calman highlighted the increasing need for in-house lawyers to be innovative in their thinking, processes and their solutions.

Greenwood Roche again wishes to congratulate all nominees and award winners on their various achievements throughout the year.
