
Te Awamutu Network Reinforcement Project

Waipa Networks has identified the need to construct a new 110kV transmission line to increase the security and reliability of electricity supply to Te Awamutu and the surrounding areas.

We are advising Waipa Networks on this project. Our work has included strategic advice, acquisition of land property rights, Maori land issues, and advice on compulsory acquisition rights and compensation entitlements.

Specialist Expertise

Property & real estate
Energy & resources
Construction and infrastructure projects

Key lawyers involved

Steve Woodfield
Hadleigh Yonge